

Exhibition at Alexandria Museum of Art

Tuesday, 28 July 2009

One of my serigraph prints will be exhibited at the Alexandria Museum of Art's 22nd September Exhibition. I've never been to Alexandria, LA, but they have a nice domain name: <http://www.themuseum.org/>

The exhibition will run from the 28th of August to the 25th of November at the Alexandria Museum of Art, Louisiana State University. From the website, it looks like a nice place. I wish I could go!
